CARLISLE TOO BUSY

Thacher's Excuse for the Secretary's Failure to Speak.

Devotion to Public Duty, He Says. Is Much to His Credit.

"Of course, Mr. Carlisle readily understands that Democratic defeat this Fall means the defeat of tariff reform—an adverse verdict by the people to Mr. Cleveland on the policy so dear to Mr. Carlisle and himself. But rather than neglect the interests of his party at this critical period, he remains feathfully at his desk to perform his official duty. The true Democrat can be intrusted with the people's interest."

Mr. Thacher said to-day that he still had hopes of hearing from Mr. Cleveland at the proper time.

Ex-Mayor William R. Grace was at the Park Avenue Hotel this morning, and had a consultation for two hours with Mr. Thacher and Major Hinkley. When he came from the room Mr. Grace sail:

"We were talking about the general political situation. Major Hinkley said that from what information he had gathered Mr. Hill will surely be elected."

It was afterwards learned from an

It was afterwards learned from an authoritative source that the ex-Mayor had been called upon to explain to the party leaders some little inconsistencies which were said to have come under the notice of the headquarters people resently.

had been called upon to explain to the party leaders some little inconsistencies which were said to have come under the notice of the headquarters people recently.

One of the matters which Mr. Grace was asked to explain was the report that the State Democracy had sent out its ticket with a Wheeler paster.

When an "Evening World" reporter saked him about that matter Mr. Grace repiled somewhat hotty:

"I have seen no such paster. I don't believe that there is any such paster in existence.

The truth of the whole matter is this boo existence.

The truth of the whole matter is this: The Committee of LXX, has issued a paster with the Hill ticket at the head of it, and also toe regular county ticket on it and the local State Democracy ticket. The members have also sent out an er paster, with Morton's name at the head and the regular county ticket (the Strong ticket) and the local Republican porganess on it. can nominees on it.

"The Committee of LXX, has also sued a paster with Wheeler's name at the head with the regular county ticket in it, and, separately, of course, both the Republican and State Democracy nominations.

"The reason for this is to be perfectly fair to noth parties. That was the desire of the Committee of LXX., and it was therefore necessary to send out four district below Fourteenth street will be greatly cut down this year.

"A thorough canvass has been made by our men," said he, "and the reports sent in to Ernest Harvier, Chairman of the Executive Committee, show that In the districts below Fourteenth street, Tammany vote will be reduced one-quarter from that of last year.
"In 1833 it poiled 41,000 majority in these downtown districts. This year it is doubtful if its majority will exceed to 000.

"Through the efforts of our district leaders, colonization has been stopped and there will be a compartively fair election. In these lower districts, the Tammany men who have been waiting for a long time to get even with Tammany Hall, now see their chance.
"In every district there are from 100 to 330 men who have been promised places and have not received them. They recognize the fact that Tammany Hall has no additional patronage to bestow, and they will suport the other candidate.

and they will suport date.

"There has been fraud practiced in some of the lower districts, and between now and election day there may be some startling developments. The Law Committee of the independent County Organization is now looking into the matter of these frauds."

John Boyd Thacher at the Democratic State headquarters gave out the following statement to-day as to why Secretary Carlisle will not speak during the campaign here:

"I have received word from a high Government official that Secretary Carlisle would have spoken except for the pressure of public ousiness that suddenly came upon him. It is characteristic of the Democratic officials that a public trust takes precedence over party calls.

his visit to the ex-President was one of friendship only and had no political significance.

To-morrow night's meeting in Carnegle Hall promises to contain the features of a political pageant as well as those of a political pageant as well as those of a political pageant as well as those of a rousing mass-meeting. The Lincoln Pioneer Club will head a body of one thousand men, who, carrying torches, will escort Mr. Harrison to Carnegle Hall.

There is a dearth of news at Republican State Headquarters in the Fifth Avenue Hotel, which may or may not be indicative of effective work being done under the surface.

Col. Thomas P. Ochlitree appeared at Republican Headquarters this morning and repeated his statement that he was in favor of Strong's election. He said the election of Strong would make New York the metropolis of the world.

Shortly after noon Col. Fred Dent Grant, fresh from his trib through the State in company with Gov. McKinley, called upon Chairman Hackett. His account of the enthusiastic receptions which Gov. McKinley met everywhere cheered the soul of Mr. Hackett, who began to look of late as if a cold wave of despondency had struck the Morton boom.

Estimate Decided Upon.

The Board of Estimate and Appo ionment met this afternoon to figure out the total of the provisional estimates of departmental expenditures for mates of departmental expenditures for 1885.

The sum agreed upon was $18,626,263. There are $3,696,000 in the general fund, so the net budget is $15,629,533. Last year the final estimate was $18,64,257,95, and this was reduced by $1,609,000 by the general fund making the net budget $15,004,257,69. So the final estimate of last year and the provisional estimate this year are nearly equal.

Hefore the provisional estimate was adopted, the Board, on motion of Mayor Gilroy, struck out the claim of $121,500, made by the State for the care of the insane. The Mayor said the claim was illegal, but the courts may decide that the city must pay it, thus increasing the budget more than half a million.

At the last moment a claim of $6,000 by Dr. Ogden Doremus for services in the Dr. Myers trial, was inserted in the budget.
